

Under no circumstances allow any business to call me anytime if I am on a "no call list". That was the reason we passed this legislation. Let the people, not large corporate interests, make the legislation.